Business Resolution Embodying Human Rights in Our Investment Decisions

This resolution was submitted by petition - signed by not fewer than 250 members of UUA certified (in 2019) congregations, with no more than 10 members from one congregation.

Proposed Bylaw Amendments Co-Moderator Vacancies

The UUA Bylaws currently permit more than one person to hold the office of moderator as “co-moderators,” and this amendment clarifies that if one of those individuals holding the office of moderator leaves the role then the position will be vacant. Co-moderators are chosen as a team, and if that team is no longer intact then the Board must act to fill the vacancy. The amendment gives the Board flexibility to appoint one or more of the members of a co-moderator team to a vacancy to serve out the remainder of the term, but does not require them to do so.

Timelines for Nominating Committee This proposed amendment extends the deadline by which nominations must be made by the Nominating Committee for the UUA Board and Committees. The current deadline of December 10 was developed in a time when the UUA relied on sending materials and nominations by mail, and much less time is required when applications and notifications can be made online. This will give applicants for volunteer roles and the Nominating Committee additional time to complete the process, which is currently limited to consideration of candidates only in the Fall who will not take office until the following June. The amendment includes a conforming change to the deadline to submit nominations by petition.

Actions of Immediate Witness

Title: Address 400 Hundred Years of White Supremacist Colonialism

Description: This AIW describes the reasons why Unitarian Universalists must remember and address the European invasion of this continent, the genocide of the original peoples and the ongoing destruction of our earth. It offers priority actions which Unitarian Universalists can take in solidarity with Indigenous-led movements and struggles.

Title: Amen to Uprising: A Commitment and Call to Action

Description: This AIW is a call to action for Unitarian Universalists to engage in the larger movement to end anti-Blackness and defund the police. This current global political moment is presenting us with unique and urgent possibility. With specific attention to our universalist theology, we imagine the possibility of a world free from policing. This AIW affirms our renewed commitment to creating authentic justice rather than relying on state violence.
