

will and perhaps expand our beloved church family and friends.

Much work has been done and much more is to be done. Have you ever moved or fed a large purple dragon?